Peace and Allah's mercy and blessings be upon you

{{Say nothing will happen to us except what Allah has decreed for us He is our protector;" and on Allah let the Believers put their trust}}

My honorable brother,

I have started my message with the honorable verse to make clear that I am cautious to the extent that will ensure my safety and your safety and such that it does not paralyze us and make us two from among millions of our people who are abstaining from the jihad. I mention that because the foolish enemy itself has its limits and what prevents it from discovering every minor and major thing that takes place on its land, and we are nothing but two regular people exchanging ideas about a subject that matters to us, and we have our rights in this country, is this not true my beloved brother? As such I don't find a problem in continuing our communication this way as long as we keep the relationship exclusively between us and leave out the important details of our project to be discussed when we meet, with the permission of Allah, may He be praised and exalted, at a time and in a place set based on our personal circumstances and the nature of our dealings and the security situation.

My dear brother, excuse me but I have some basic questions that will clarify to me what we can cooperate in, and Allah willing you will be able to answer the ones you are comfortable with:

What is your physical ability?

Do you have a passport? You had mentioned in the forum that you are from a certain country, so do you also have a passport from the country where you are presently in?

Do your familial and personal circumstances (married/single) allow you to travel?

What is the duration that you can be away from your family? Will this absence cause hardship to anyone?

Are you in need for any medication or device (glasses, etc) Allah forbid, in case you are absent from your country?

My brother, as I have mentioned, answer as much as you are able to, and Allah willing together we will be able to overcome any potential obstacles. Thanks be to Allah praise and glory be to Him, He has granted me what can facilitate for us many of the matters.

Allah bless you my beloved brother, and Allah willing we will be granted what we desire and what pleases Him.

Your brother Al-Karkhi .
