Subject: The best wishes in the blessed Ramadan

"O Lord give me in it a guide for your approval, and do not allow Satan to find a path to me, and make paradise as my residence and resting-place O who answers the needs of those who ask."
Amen.

In this day of the blessed Ramadan I extend to you and to the nation the congratulations and in particular this day is indeed a remembrance of (nine one one) in which the Sheikh and the commander led us in a painful attack to the head of Satan and the strongest Crusader nation in the world, may Allah curse it. My prayer is that your operation will also be painful and even preferable because of its effectiveness and the expectation of its repetition, Allah willing. May it lead to the completion of the provisions that you mentioned in your message to the Sheikh, may Allah delay his death.

My Dear,

Already the appointed time became near and the zero hour is about to ring and everything seemed ready except some of the details that we will discuss.

"And prepare against them what force you can and horses tied at the frontier, to frighten thereby the enemy of Allah and your enemy." Allah Almighty has spoken the truth.

Before anything I would like to congratulate you for your steadfastness and your determination and your attention to fine details of the blessed and the decisive operation. So your study and your surveillance and your examination and your description of the target that you selected are models of the first and the best class. As I see indeed you are prepared and the equipment is almost ready for the accomplishment of your goal which you often said that indeed you came to the enemy's country for its sake. You even indeed paid attention to the details of the timing of the operation in minutes and to secure the witnesses and the excuse that you were at your work location on that the blessed day and your absence will be short and only to execute the operation.

However I indeed noticed that the only thing that is not completed in the preparation is the location for placing the blessed car. So O my dear I read and I examined what you wrote about this subject. Is there a way for placing the car in such a manner that it is effective and secure and not drawing the attention of the others? For an example are there parking spaces that you can use and which are underground and before entering the gate? I mean are there indeed public parking spaces underground you can use? Try as much as possible not to draw the attention to you or to the car during the operation. And then it matters to us greatly that you indeed are able to escape quickly. Your safety is first.

However O my brother, the more the appointed time nears the more the importance of the caution and the precision and the attention to the details increase. So I ask you to pay the complete attention to the following matters. As you said earlier, attempt to have the operation be safe for you one hundred percent and not attracting to the looks. And that is why beware not to carry the arms or the knives or anything dangerous that shows what you will do. Already you said repeatedly that you excel at the matter of blending in the enemy's ranks and you appear to indeed be one of them and you put at the place of your residence what misguides the enemy and you said that indeed you are of them and you even said that you may wear the cross. Do all that you talked about in more precision on the blessed and coming day. Wear their attire, use their expressions, and distance all that might draw the attention to you until the day comes that Allah Almighty destines. And then the hard strike comes like the thunderbolt while they are asleep in a figurative sense that is oblivious. But if you encountered a simple impediment on that day then use your intelligence and sophistication, not the weapons in escaping from it. And prepare in your mind some the reasons for your visit to the target in case you are asked by someone.

As for the matter of the forthcoming date, so already your first idea was indeed the operation be executed during the days of the holiday and that will cause as you said, the placement of the smile on the faces of many as they celebrate the holiday then it will be a holiday on top of a holiday. You also preferred another date. So although we do not know now the date specifically for security reasons, you know what I mean, but the days of the holiday and the other date that you mentioned are the suggested and possible dates. O my brother there are matters we do not know all of them perfectly and they control the selection of the date. For example there are logistical works like finishing the equipment which we do not want to remain ready and without use for a long time. You certainly know what I mean.

Finally O my brother and master of the dreams, you remind me of the Prophet Yusuf peace be upon Him, interpreter of the dreams. I congratulate you on these blessed visions. No doubt He be He exalted will make you a blessing and you will wipe the tears from the eyes of the miserable ones according to your saying. My prayer that He will count them good deeds in your scales and house you in His highest paradises with the Messenger, Allah's blessings and peace be upon Him, and with the prophets and the companions and the Mujahidin. Amen.

I hope that you examine the target well and you inform me about underground locations that are safe and not drawing attention to you and to the car.

Indeed the day of punishment is coming fast and we will meet Allah willing after the [UI] operation.

Your brother: Rafiq
